

Provisoos.

hundred and eighty-eight dollars; Provided however, that all that portion of the interest on the public debt which at any time during the year ending on the first day of January eighteen hundred and fifty-four, shall be due on that part of said debt which may constitute the sinking fund of the State, shall be applied by the Treasurer, to the purchase of stocks or bonds of the State for the increase of said fund and to the payment of the difference between the amount appropriated by chapter one hundred and nineteen of eighteen hundred and fifty-two, for the payment of the interest on the public debt, and that actually due, and owing on the first day of January eighteen hundred and fifty-three, the sum of nine thousand seven hundred and sixty-five dollars and eighty-nine cents. To the payment of the interest falling due on the first days of July and January next, on the bonds or certificates of debt of the Annapolis and Elkridge rail road company, issued in pursuance of chapter one hundred and sixty-eight, of eighteen hundred and forty-one, and to the payment of so much of the principal of said bonds or certificates of debt as is directed to be paid by the said act, seven thousand dollars; Provided however, that only so much thereof shall be so applied as may be equal to the net profits of the said Annapolis and Elkridge rail road company, and the profits which this State shall or may have derived from the use of the Annapolis and Elkridge rail road in connection with the Washington branch of the Baltimore and Ohio rail road, and which said profits shall or may have been paid into the Treasury as required by the aforesaid act of eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter one hundred and sixty-eight, for the redemption and cancellation of the debt created for the benefit of the State tobacco warehouses in Baltimore, per act of eighteen hundred and forty-six, chapter three hundred and forty-eight. To be paid out of the tobacco fund the sum of twenty-one thousand seven hundred and five dollars and fifty-two cents, for the redemption and cancellation of the debt created by chapter one hundred and fifty, of eighteen hundred and twenty-one, for the benefit of the Maryland Penitentiary. The sum of twenty-seven thousand nine hundred and forty-seven, dollars and thirty cents, to the cost of filing and recording in the court of Appeals as required by the Constitution, the laws and resolutions which have been or may be passed at the present session, four hundred dollars. To the expense of indexing the laws, journals and public documents of the two houses of the General Assembly, four hundred and fifty dollars. To the expense of distributing the laws, public documents and journals