

dred dollars of the surplus funds of said primary school, and dispose of the old school house at private or public sale, and to appropriate the proceeds arising therefrom, towards building a new one, if they, or a majority of them, deem it proper to do so.

Authority to levy.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said trustees or a majority of them, are hereby authorised and empowered to levy from time to time an additional tax upon the taxable property of said primary school district, as they may deem most prudent and proper for the purpose of reimbursing the hundred dollars so used out of the surplus funds of said school, and to do and perform all other acts for the management and good government of said school.

Inconsistent acts repealed.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That all acts or part of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect from its passage.

CHAPTER 165.

Passed May 5, 1853. AN ACT for the benefit of the "Redemptorists" and the congregations under their pastoral charge, in relation to a burying ground lot.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The "Redemptorists" and the German congregations under their pastoral charge, have by their petition to this General Assembly, represented that they have purchased a grave yard within the limits of the city of Baltimore, for the interment of their deceased brethren; and that several streets have been located through said grave yard, which if opened, would produce great inconvenience; And whereas, the said petitioners have further represented the said grave yard to be remote from the improvements and improving parts of said city; And whereas, their petition seems reasonable and ought to be granted; Therefore,

Not lawful to open streets without sanction of General Assembly.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful to open any street, lane or alley through the burial grounds of the Redemptorists, situated in the city of Baltimore on Loney's lane, without the sanction first had of the General Assembly of Maryland; Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent the open-