

Reservation.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the Legislature reserves to itself the right to alter or annul this act of incorporation whenever the public interest may require it.

CHAPTER 175.

Passed May 9, 1853.

AN ACT to regulate the period of confinement of persons convicted in removed cases of offences punishable by confinement in Jail, and with relation to the fine and costs in such cases.

Person convicted, to be confined in jail of county from which trial was removed.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That whenever any person punishable by five or imprisonment in the jails of this State, is convicted of any offence in any court to which a removal of his or her trial may have been prayed, and taken place, the said person so convicted, shall be sentenced to confinement in the Jail of the county, or of the city of Baltimore from which the said removal may have taken place, and it shall be the duty of the sheriff of the county in which said conviction may be had to place the person so convicted and sentenced in the custody of the sheriff of the county, or city in which the proceeding against the said person so removed, may have originated, together with a certified copy of the docket entries in the said case.

Fine and costs

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That no security for fine and costs shall be given in any case which shall be removed from the criminal court of Baltimore city to the Circuit court of an adjoining county, but the confinement of parties sentenced by any court to the payment of any fine and costs shall be subject to the same regulations and provisions which apply to persons sentenced to the payment of any fine and costs in the city of Baltimore.

In force.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage.