

CHAPTER 22.

Passed Feb. 16, 1853. AN ACT to require the Treasurer of Baltimore county, to keep a separate account of all monies received by him for the use of the Public Schools of said county, from other county funds.

Treasurer directed to keep separate account. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the treasurer of Baltimore county is hereby required and directed, to keep a separate account of all monies received from taxes levied, and from other sources, on account of, and for the use and support of the public schools of said county; and the said treasurer shall also keep a correct account of all monies paid out on account of said schools, and to whom paid.

Application of money. SEC. 2. And be it enacted That no money received from taxes levied, or other sources, for the use of the public schools of said county, shall be used or applied to any other purpose whatever.

In force. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 23.

Passed Feb. 21, 1853. AN ACT to amend an act entitled, an act to provide for the establishment of an Alms House in Carroll county, passed January session, eighteen hundred and fifty-two, chapter two hundred and forty-eight.

Part of act of 1852, repealed. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the act of January session, eighteen hundred and fifty-two, chapter two hundred and forty-eight, section one, as prohibits the county commissioners, for Carroll county, from purchasing more than the quantity of one hundred and fifty acres of land, for a poor-house farm for said county, be, and the same is hereby repealed; and that any purchase or contract for the purchase of a poor-house farm, containing more than one hundred and fifty acres of land, made or entered into by said county commissioners, since the passage of said law, be, and the same is hereby ratified and confirmed, and made as good, valid and Contract confirmed.