

CHAPTER 189.

Passed May 9, 1853. AN ACT to authorise executors, administrators, trustees or receivers to sell scrip or evidences of debt against the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal company.

Authority to sell bonds, &c.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, any executor or executor, administrator or administrators, trustee or trustees, receiver or receivers, shall have full power and authority to sell at public or private sale, under an order of any of the orphans' courts or circuit courts of the State, as the case may be, any bonds, scrip or other evidences of debt, issued by the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal company, or any judgment against said company, and he or they shall account for the proceeds of any sale of the same in the same manner, as for sales of any other property sold in the execution of their trust or trusts.

CHAPTER 190.

Passed April 22, 1853. AN ACT to protect wild Ducks and other wild fowl, in the waters of Back river, Middle river, Seneca creek, and their tributary streams in Baltimore county.

Fine for violation.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if any person or persons shall use any sink boats, sneak boats or floats, in any of the waters of Back river, Middle river, Dundee, Salt Petre, Seneca creek, and their tributary streams in Baltimore county, while engaged in shooting at or killing wild ducks or other wild fowl, he or they shall be subject to a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than fifty dollars for each and every offence, and all things hereinafter enumerated which shall have been used in violation of this law shall be forfeited, that is to say, the sink boats, sneak boats, crafts or floats, the gun or guns, ammunition, and all other property found in the possession or use of such person or persons, at the time of the arrest and seizure, together with the boat, craft or float, and all things on board or belonging to the same, employed to convey the said person or persons to any of the aforesaid waters, for the purpose or use of any or all the above enumerated articles, in the manner afore-