

' Failure to pay fees.

ure desire it, and if committed, the officer who desired the commitment shall pay the jail fees, at the rate of twenty-five cents per day; and in case of a failure to pay the said fees for the space of three consecutive days, the party whose jail fees have thus remained unpaid, shall be discharged from confinement, and he shall adjudge and condemn as forfeited to the said officer, and to the person or persons who may have aided him in making the arrest and seizure, the boat or craft in the possession of the officers, together with her papers, furniture, tackle and apparel, and all things on board of her at the time of her seizure, and all or any property in the possession of the said officer, found, seized and taken as aforesaid, and the said officer, with the persons who aided him in making the arrest and seizure, shall sell the same to the highest bidder after ten days notice.

Right of appeal.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons convicted of offending against this act, shall think himself or themselves aggrieved by such conviction, he or they shall be at liberty to appeal from the judgment of the justice of the peace, at any time within ten days from the rendition thereof, to the circuit court of Baltimore county, the judge of which is hereby empowered and directed, upon the petition of the applicant or applicants, in a summary way, and without any unnecessary delay, to hear the allegations and proofs in the case or cases, and to affirm or reverse the judgment or judgments of the justice of the peace, as to him may seem right, and in case of affirmance, to adjudge to the State the costs incurred in defending the said appeal, and it shall be in the election of the said appellant or appellants, to have a decision in a summary way by the judge of said court, or a trial by jury before the said circuit court.

Proceedings
not to be stayed by appeal.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the proceedings on the judgment or judgments of the justice of the peace shall not be stayed by any appeal, unless the appellant or appellants, within ten days after the rendition of the same, shall enter into an appeal bond to the State, with two sufficient securities, to be approved by the said justice in a penal sum of double the amount in value of the boat or craft, and property seized, and the fines imposed, to be estimated by the said justice, conditioned to prosecute with effect, his or their appeal to the circuit court, and it shall be the duty of the justice taking the appeal bond, immediately to deliver the same to the officer who made the arrest, and in case of forfeiture of the bond, the said officer shall have full