effectual in law, as if the restriction aforesaid, in the law aforesaid, had never been made.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the power confer- Power to bor-red upon the said county commissioners, by the said row money increased.
original act, to borrow money on the credit of said county, to pay for said poor-house farm, and the establishment of an alms-house thereon, be, and is hereby increased to the extent of any additional expense that may have been incurred in the purchase of more than one hundred and fifty acres of land by said county commissioners; and that the said county com- Authority to missioners, or their successors, be, and are also hereby sell. authorised and empowered to sell and convey any portion of the said poor-house farm, bought by them as aforesaid, whenever, in their judgment, the public interest may require such sale

CHAPTER 24.

AN ACT providing for the payment of expenses incur- Passed March red in repairing the Furnace of the House of Dele- 9, 1853. gates, and for materials furnished and work done in the Chambers and the Committee Rooms of the two Houses of the General Assembly and the State Library.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly Sum approof Maryland, That the sum of one thousand and priated. eighty-nine dollars and forty-three cents, be, and the same is hereby appropriated for the payment of expenses incurred in the repairs to the furnace of the House of Delegates, under an order of the last session, and for materials furnished and work done in the chambers and committee rooms of the two Houses and the Library, under the supervision of the State Librarian.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That of the sum so ap- To whom to propriated, the Treasurer, on the warrant of the Comp- be paid. troller, shall pay to Henry E. Bateman four hundred and ninety-nine dollars and ninety-three cents; to Edward Sands one hundred and sixty-one dollars and thirty-nine cents; Robbins & Bibb thirty-six dollars and twenty-five cents; T. A. Mitchell two hundred and twenty-five dollars; Iglehart & Caldwell thirty-