

Tuesday of June next, to appoint one person, and it shall be the duty of the school commissioners of said county, on or before the same day, to appoint one person who shall proceed, in conjunction, to audit without delay all the accounts of the said county commissioners and treasurer of Baltimore county, so far as the same in any way relate to the said school fund; in the event of the two auditors thus chosen, being unable to agree, they are hereby authorised and empowered to select a third person, whose audit shall be final; and in event of the said auditors being unable to select a third person, they are hereby required to communicate the fact without delay to the judge of the circuit court for Baltimore county, whose duty it shall be to appoint a third person, whose audit shall be final, and upon such audit it shall be the further duty of the said county treasurer, and he is hereby required, on or before the first day of July next, to pay to the order of the school commissioners hereby incorporated, properly attested by the signature of the president and secretary of said corporation, all monies found by said audit to be due the said school fund, and all property, effects, stock or other evidences of debt, in his possession, appertaining to the said school fund, the commissioners of Baltimore county and the school commissioners of said county, are hereby authorised to pay in equal proportions, to the said auditors a fair and reasonable compensation for their services.

Persons to be appointed to audit accounts.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That all the bequests in and of the school fund of Baltimore county, and all the real and personal estate of intestates, all State donations, all fines, penalties, forfeitures and dividends, now by law made payable to the treasurer of said county, for the use and benefit of the public schools of said county, shall, from and after the passage of this act, be directly paid to the order of the school commissioners of Baltimore county, incorporated by this act, properly attested by the signature of the president and secretary of said corporation; exclusive right being hereby vested in the said school commissioners, to receive all monies from whatever source arising, dedicated by law for the use and benefit of the public schools of said county, in the manner herein prescribed, to be by them disbursed and employed for the support of public education in said county; and all laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act, relating to the public schools or school funds of said county, be and the same are hereby repealed.

All bequests in school fund to be paid to order of school commissioners.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the school commissioners of Baltimore county, hereby incorporated, A treasurer to be appointed