

the trustees of Berlin Academy are required on or before the first of May in every year, to report to the Orphans' court of Worcester county, a full and complete account of the management and administration of the trust and funds transferred to, and devolved upon them under and by virtue of that act; Therefore,

May institute suit.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the trustees of any one or more of the primary school districts, constituting that part of Worcester county which was formerly Buckingham and Worcester Hundreds, feeling themselves aggrieved by the manner in which the trustees of Buckingham Academy have managed the said trust property, and applied the income thereof, may institute suit in the proper court to enforce the execution of the trusts of the said will, according to the true and proper legal construction thereof.

CHAPTER 214.

AN ACT to regulate Pilotage.

Passed May 17, 1853.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, It is necessary for the safety and preservation of vessels bound from this State to sea, or coming into the Chesapeake bay, and bound up any river of this State, or to any port thereof, that an able and experienced corps of pilots should be established to conduct and pilot such vessel, for reasonable fees, to their several moorings or ports, or to sea, as the case may be, and that ignorant and unskilful persons should be prevented from undertaking such pilotage; Therefore,

Board of examiners appointed.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That J. Smith Hollins, William Graham, Samuel T. Thompson and John Haynie, or any three of them, be, and they are hereby appointed a board to examine any person who shall desire to be admitted a pilot, he first producing a certificate from the circuit court of the county wherein he resides, or from the court of common pleas of the city of Baltimore, in case he resides in said city, of his honesty and good behaviour, and paying to the said board the sum of five dollars, and to the register of the board seventy-five cents; and if upon public examination the person shall appear to the board of sufficient ability, skill and experience, they shall grant him one of three kind of warrants of appointment and license, according to the quali-
