

should divide said school district number one, and assigning their reasons, if they should not so divide.

Trustees to be appointed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if the commissioners appointed by virtue of this act shall divide said school district number one, and create an additional school district, the orphans' court, upon the same being so reported, shall appoint five suitable persons to act as trustees for said new school district, who, after qualifying, as trustees of other primary schools in said county are required to qualify, shall proceed to select some central site for the erection of a school house thereon; and they shall be, and they are hereby authorized to condemn, or otherwise procure a sufficient lot of land for said purpose, and shall receive contributions, from well disposed persons, to aid in the erection of a school house thereon.

Authority to levy.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That after the new school district shall be laid off and created by virtue of the provisions of this act, and trustees have been appointed for the same, upon application by said trustees, the county commissioners of Charles county, are hereby authorised and required to levy upon the assessable property of said county the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, and shall pay the same over to the trustees aforesaid, or their order, for the purpose of paying for the lot of ground selected, and building a school house thereon; and the said trustees are hereby authorised and required to exercise the same jurisdiction, management and control over said school district as trustees of other primary schools in the county are authorised and required to exercise.

District to be entitled to all benefits.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the primary school district which may be laid off and created under the provisions of this act, shall be included in the number of primary school districts of the county, and the orphans' court and circuit court of the county shall exercise jurisdiction, management and control over said school district, and shall extend to said school district all the benefits and advantages, and pay over to the trustees thereof such equal proportion or sum of money as such school district may be entitled to, upon the trustees thereof complying with the regulations and provisions applying to the trustees of other primary schools in the county, in the same manner, and by the same means as if said new school district had been created under the former laws for the establishment of primary schools in Charles county.

In force.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.