

veyor to perform the duties required of them, faithfully and honestly, and shall each receive for his services seventy-five cents a day and his expenses; the commissioners shall each be entitled to receive as a compensation for their services, two dollars and their expenses, for each and every day they are employed in and about the said assignment of dower and partition; and the surveyor two dollars and his expenses, for each and every day he shall be employed in making survey under the directions of the commissioners, and such further sum for making the plats to be recorded in the orphans' court, and in the office of the clerk of the circuit court aforesaid, and for all other services to which he may be called in the business, as the said orphans' court shall determine to be right and proper; the clerk of the circuit court aforesaid, shall receive such compensation for the services he shall render in the premises, as is customary for like or similar services under the laws of this State; all costs and expenses properly incurred in procuring, effecting and completing the said assignment of dower and partition, made under this act and an act of the Legislature of Delaware, passed at Dover, on or about the eighteenth day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-three, entitled, an act for the relief of the widow and heirs of Jacob Raymond, deceased, except those hereinbefore fixed and specified, and those provided for in this act, shall be ascertained, taxed and allowed by the orphans' court aforesaid, and the said court are hereby authorised and required, to make such allowances for all services fairly rendered, and all expenses fairly incurred, in and about the said business as the said court shall deem just, keeping in view the present rates of allowance, for like or similar services under the intestate laws of the State of Delaware; all the costs and expenses of procuring, effecting and completing the said assignment of dower and partition, to the true intent and meaning of this act, and the said act of the Legislature of the State of Delaware, shall be paid by the said parties concerned, in the following proportions, that is to say, the said Eliza B. Raymond, widow of the said Jacob Raymond, deceased, shall pay one equal third part of the said expenses, and the said three children of the said deceased, shall each pay one equal third part of the other two thirds part thereof; the charges and expenses of procuring this act, and the said act of the Legislature of the State of Delaware, in General Assembly met, shall be deemed a part of the costs in the case.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That in laying off and assigning to the said Eliza B. Raymond, her dower or

Compensation

Annual rental value, &c.