

CHAPTER 267.

Passed May 24, 1853. AN ACT amendatory of the act entitled, an act to make valid certain devises and bequests in the last will and testament of Thomas Mains, late of Washington county, deceased, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-nine, chapter three hundred and sixty-nine.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The Most Reverend Francis Patrick Kenrick, the present Roman Catholic Archbishop of Baltimore, hath by his petition to this General Assembly set forth, that the Most Reverend Samuel Eccleston, his predecessor in office, hath departed this life without having fully executed the authority conferred by the original act, of which this is amendatory, and hath asked a continuation of the same power in himself; Therefore,

Authority to sue.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Francis Patrick Kenrick be, and he is hereby authorised and empowered, in his own name, to sue for and recover, and to take and receive, and also, to sell and dispose of all the estate, devised by the said Thomas Mains, to the use of the said church, which was not sold and conveyed by the said Samuel Eccleston in his life time; and also, to execute, carry out and perform any contract for the sale of any part thereof made by the said Samuel Eccleston and not fully completed.

CHAPTER 268.

Passed May 25, 1853. AN ACT amendatory to an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, chapter one hundred and seventy-three, incorporating the Weyerton and Boonsboro' Turnpike Company.

Time extended.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the time for making and completion of the road authorised to be made in and by the act passed at the December session, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, chapter one hundred and seventy-three, which by the fifth section of the said act is limited to