

visions of this act be complied with ; it shall be the duty of said trustees to superintend the school within their immediate district, to make rules for the good government of said schools, to give all orders on the commissioners for the payment of teacher, and may suspend or dismiss a teacher for immoral conduct or any other cause, when in their judgment the interest of the school may require it ; they may at any time suspend or expel a pupil for immorality, for continued insubordination, or other improper conduct ; and they shall admit no child in any of the public schools under the age of five years or over the age of seventeen years, unless in such cases as in their judgment this rule should be dispensed with ; they shall oblige the teacher in each of their respective schools to keep a register of the names and ages of all the pupils who have from time to time attended the schools ; and they shall, on or before the first of December of each year, furnish the president of the board of school commissioners with a statement of the number of pupils, male and female, that have attended the schools, within their respective districts, during the year ending on the last of December.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the trustees of the several school districts of the county to levy on each parent or guardian of the district one dollar and fifty cents per quarter for each child or ward, he or she may have, who shall attend the schools of their respective districts, and the amount so levied may be abated, one-fourth by the parents proving from the assessment books of the county that he or she is not assessed at three thousand dollars; and three-fourths, if he or she prove by said books that they are not assessed at one thousand dollars, and all guardians are hereby required to claim for their wards the abatement allowed to parents ; Provided, that this section shall not be so construed as to deny the benefits of such school to the children of such parents as are not assessed, and in default of payment of the sum or sums hereby authorised to be levied, said trustees shall have full power to sue for and recover the same in the same manner as small debts are now recoverable, and when collected, shall apply the same towards defraying the current expenses of the school or schools under their direction.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the trustees of the several school districts shall cause to be held during the year at least one public examination of the pupils in their respective schools, and said trustees are required