

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the county commissioners of each county shall determine, at least sixty days prior to each election of road supervisors, what amount of compensation or salary, each road supervisor shall be entitled to receive, taking into consideration, in estimating a fair compensation, the reasonable amount of labor and supervision to be performed in each district; but said compensation or salary shall not be increased nor diminished, unless the appropriations or expenditures for roads in said election districts, shall be increased or diminished, during his term of office.

Compensation

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That in all cases in which public county roads form dividing lines between election districts, the county commissioners shall divide said roads between the supervisors of the contiguous election districts, in such manner as they may deem right.

Division of roads.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the sheriff of each county shall give public notice of the election of road supervisors in the same manner, and at the same time as now required to give notice of other public elections; he shall deliver the commissions to the several road supervisors within his county, within twenty days after they are delivered to him, under a penalty of twenty dollars, to be paid to the county, for each neglect; and shall receive from the county the sum of fifty cents for the delivery of each commission.

Duty of sheriff

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That any road supervisor, who shall be elected or appointed under the provisions of this act, shall be liable to be presented by the grand inquest of his county, for any neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office; and shall, upon conviction thereof before the circuit court of his county, be fined in each case, not less than five dollars, nor more than twenty-five dollars, in the discretion of the court.

Neglect of duty.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the county commissioners of the several counties, shall have power to revoke the commission of any road supervisor, at any time during his term of office, for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office; and shall have power to fill any vacancy that may occur, from any cause; in the office of road supervisor, for the remainder of the term that shall become vacant.

Power to revoke commission:
