

shall be subject to the same restrictions specified in the ninth section.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the said company having perfected said road, and the same being examined, approved and licensed in manner aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for them to appoint such and so many toll-gatherers as they shall think proper to collect and receive of, and from any person or persons using said road, the tolls and rate per mile according to the length of the road, as are charged and collected as the toll gates of the Baltimore and Frederick turnpike road, and to stop any person riding, leading or driving any horses, mules, oxen, coaches, cart, wagon, wain or sled, cattle, hogs, sheep, sulky, chair, chaise, phaeton, or other carriage of pleasure or burden, from passing through the said gate or gates, until the toll for the said passage shall have been paid; Provided, that no toll gate shall be erected within one mile from the taxable limits of Frederick city.

Toll gatherers.

Proviso.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That the company hereby incorporated shall have the power and remedy for using the road, or refusal to pay toll, or fraud practised, as are given by the act incorporating the Baltimore and Frederick turnpike company, and shall be subject to the same proceedings and penalty, in case the said road is not kept in repair, as are provided in the act incorporating said Baltimore and Frederick turnpike company.

Power and remedy for using road.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the president and managers of said company, shall keep a fair and just account of all monies received by them from the said commissioners, and from the subscribers to the said undertaking, an account of the several subscriptions, and also all money expended by them in the prosecution of their said work, and shall once at least in every year, submit such account to a general meeting of the stockholders, until the road shall be completed and until all the costs, charges and expenses of effecting the same shall be fully paid and discharged, and the aggregate amount of such expenses shall be liquidated and ascertained; and if upon such liquidation, or when the capital stock shall be expended, it shall and may be lawful for the president, managers and company to enlarge the capital stock of said company to such an extent as shall be deemed sufficient to accomplish the work and receive subscriptions on the original terms as before provided for, in the second, third and fourth sections of this act.

President to keep account.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That all subscriptions to stock made by any person or corporation, in the pre-

Subscriptions
valid.