

CHAPTER 47.

Passed Feb. 23, 1853. AN ACT to appoint trustees for William Taylor, a lunatic, of Bucks county, Pennsylvania, and to enable said trustees to sell the real estate of said Taylor, situate in Queen Anne's county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Robert Taylor, Sarah T. Allen, Edward Taylor, Michael Taylor, Caleb N. Taylor, Thomas N. Taylor, Emma L. Taylor and Franklin Taylor, the brothers and sisters of one William Taylor, all of Bucks county, in the State of Pennsylvania, and also the heirs at law of one Michael Taylor, deceased, of Burlington county, in the State of New Jersey, together with Ann Newbold, Mary T. Hyatt, Thomas Newbold, and William Black, the husband of Ann Black, other heirs at law of the said Michael Taylor, have, by their memorial, represented to the General Assembly of Maryland, that the said Michael Taylor hath departed this life intestate, leaving the above recited persons, together with one Michael Newbold, his heirs at law, and seized of a valuable real estate in Queen Anne's county, in this State; and whereas, it hath in like manner been represented by the parties aforesaid, and by Stephen Woolsten and Thomas N. Taylor, of the said county of Bucks, in the State of Pennsylvania, by their memorial, that the aforementioned William Taylor is a lunatic and of insane mind, and hath been so found by an inquisition, which issued out of the court of Common Pleas for the said county of Bucks, and the said Stephen Woolsten and Thomas N. Taylor duly appointed the committee of the estate of the said William Taylor, lunatic; and whereas, the before mentioned persons have applied to this General Assembly for the passage of an act of Assembly, authorising and empowering the said Stephen Woolsten and Thomas N. Taylor to sell all the right and estate of the said William Taylor, in the said described real estate whereof the said Michael Taylor died seized, in Queen Anne's county aforesaid; Therefore,

Trustees appointed to sell real estate.

SEC. 1. And be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Stephen Woolsten and Thomas N. Taylor, of Bucks county, in the State of Pennsylvania be, and they are hereby appointed trustees for the benefit of William Taylor, of the said county of Bucks, a lunatic, and of insane mind, with full power and authority to sell, convey, and dispose of absolutely, any real estate or other property, which the said William Taylor may possess, and to which he is entitled, situ-
