

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the said company shall have power to erect bridges over all waters crossing said road, and may enter upon and take all lands and materials necessary for the construction of said bridges; Provided, nevertheless, that the president and managers of said company may agree with the owner or owners for the purchase of the same, and in case they shall not be able to agree with the owners, or if the owner should be a feme covert, non compos mentis, or under age, the president shall then proceed in the manner directed by the tenth section of this act, and all appropriations of lands and materials for the construction of said bridges, shall be subject to the same restrictions specified in the tenth section aforesaid.

Erection of bridges.

Proviso.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That the said company having perfected said road, or such parts thereof from time to time, as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for them to appoint such and so many toll-gatherers as they shall deem proper to collect and receive from any person or persons using said road, the tolls and rates per mile, following, to wit: that is to say, for every space of ten miles in length of the said road, the following sums of money, and so in proportion for any greater or lesser distance, or for any greater or lesser number of sheep, hogs or cattle, to wit: for every score of sheep, one-eighth of a dollar; for every score of hogs, one-eighth of a dollar; for every score of cattle, one-fourth of a dollar; for every horse and his rider, or led horse, one-sixteenth of a dollar; for every chair or chaise, with one horse and two wheels, one-eighth of a dollar; for every chariot, coach, sleigh, phaeton or chaise, with two horses and four wheels, one-quarter of a dollar; for either of the carriages last mentioned with four horses, three-eighths of a dollar; for every other carriage of pleasure, under whatsoever name it may go the like sums, according to the number of wheels and horses drawing the same; for every cart or wagon, whose wheels do not exceed the breadth of four inches, one-eighth of a dollar for each horse drawing the same; for every cart or wagon whose wheels do not exceed in breadth four inches, and not exceeding seven inches, one sixteenth of a dollar for every horse drawing the same.

Toll gatherers.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the president and managers of said company, shall keep a fair and just account of all monies received by them from said commissioners, and from the subscribers to the said road, on account of the several subscriptions, and also all money expended by them in the prosecution of President to keep account.