

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That as soon as the president and managers and company, have perfected the said road, for any distance from either end of the said road not less than four miles, and so on from time to time, any other like distance progressing, they shall give notice to the Governor of the State, who shall thereupon, forthwith nominate and appoint skilful and judicious persons to review and examine the same, and report to him, in writing, whether the said road is so far executed in a masterly and workmanlike manner, according to the true intent and meaning of this act, and if their reports shall be in the affirmative, then the Governor shall, by license under his hand and seal of the State, permit the said president, managers and company, to erect such and so many gates upon and across the said road, as will be necessary and sufficient to collect the tolls and duties hereinafter granted to said company, from all persons travelling on the same with horses, cattle, wagons, carts and carriages.

Notice to be given to Governor.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That the said company shall have power to erect bridges over all waters crossing the said road, and may enter upon and take all land and materials necessary for the construction of said bridges; Provided nevertheless, that the president and managers of said company may agree with the owners for the purchase of the same, and in case they shall not be able to agree with the owners, or if the owner should be a feme covert, non compos mentis, or under age, the president shall then proceed in the manner directed by the tenth section of this act, and all appropriations of lands or materials for the construction of said bridges, shall be subject to the same restrictions specified in the tenth section.

Erection of bridges.

Proviso.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the said company, having perfected the said road or such parts thereof from time to time as aforesaid, and the same being examined, approved and licensed in manner aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for them to appoint such and so many toll gatherers as they shall think proper, to collect and receive of or from any person or persons using said road, the tolls and rates per mile, according to the length of the road, that is to say, for every space of ten miles in length of the said road, the following sums of money, and so in proportion for any greater or lesser distance, or for any greater or lesser number of sheep, hogs or cattle, to wit: for every score of sheep, one-eighth of a dollar; for every score of hogs, one-eighth of a dollar; for every score of cattle, one-fourth of a dollar; for every horse and his rider, or led Toll gatherers.

Rates.