

CHAPTER 368.

Passed May 27, 1853. AN ACT to provide for changing the place of holding the elections in the third election district of Anne Arundel County.

Commissioners appointed. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Dorsey Jacob, Orlando Hancock, William Weedon, Zacariah Duvall and Theodore Revell, or a majority of them, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners to ascertain and establish a place for holding the elections in the third election district of Anne Arundel county, as nearly central as practicable having regard to the extent of said district, and the convenience and accommodation of the voters therein, and the said commissioners or a majority of them shall on or before the first day of September next, make out and deliver to the clerk of the Circuit court of said county, a full description in writing under their hands of the place which they may designate for holding the elections in said district, and the said clerk shall record the same among the records of his office, and cause a copy thereof to be published in the newspapers printed in the city of Annapolis for at least three consecutive weeks prior to the next general election.

Meeting. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners or a majority of them, shall meet at such place in said district as they may designate for the purpose of performing the duties required of them by this act, and may adjourn from time to time until they shall have discharged the duties required of them by the same.

Vacancy—how filled. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if a majority of said commissioners shall refuse to act, resign, die or remove from said district, the county commissioners of said county shall fill such vacancy or vacancies by the appointment of other persons in their stead to be residents of said district.

Compensation SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That for the services which may be required of said commissioners in virtue of this act, the county commissioners of said county shall allow such reasonable compensation as they may deem just and proper, to be paid out of the next annual levy in said county.

In force. SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.
