

CHAPTER 396.

AN ACT to repeal the act passed at November session, Passed May eighteen hundred and nine, chapter one hundred and eighty-one, entitled, an act relating to the Judges of the Court of Appeals, and of the County courts. 30, 1853.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Repealed.
 That the act passed at November session, eighteen hundred and nine, chapter one hundred and eighty-one, entitled, an act relative to the judges of the Court of Appeals and of the county courts, which requires the clerks of the several courts to report annually to the General Assembly, the duration of every term of court, and the attendance of the judges, be and the same is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 397.

AN ACT to reduce the present rates of tolls charged upon Sheep, Hogs, Cattle and Horses, in droves passing over the whole or any part of the United States Road within the limits of this State. Passed May 30, 1853.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Rates of tolls.
 That in lieu of the present rates of tolls established by an act, entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act for the preservation and repair of that portion of the United States' road within the limits of this State, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter three hundred and five, the rates of tolls established by the first section of said act, to which this act is amendatory, that from and after the first day of June, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, the following rates of toll shall be demanded and received by the toll collectors from every person passing through the gates on said road: that is to say, for every space of ten miles on said road, and so in proportion for every greater or less distance, to wit: for every score of sheep or hogs, four cents; for every score of cattle, eight cents; for every horse or mule and his rider, passing in droves, whether led or rode, three cents each.