

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the county commissioners of Baltimore county, shall make publication of the result of the said election, and if any one place designated or voted for shall receive a majority of the whole number of votes cast, such place shall be declared the county seat for said county; Provided, such place be within the limits of said county proper; but if no place shall receive a majority of the whole number of votes at the first balloting, the county commissioners shall appoint a day after, at least fifteen days notice be given by the said county commissioners in each newspaper printed in said county, for holding a second election, when the voters shall be confined in their choice to the three places having the highest number of votes at the first election, and if no one of the three places voted for at the second election authorised by this act, has not a majority of all the votes cast in its favor, then the county commissioners shall proceed to give notice for a third election in like manner as provided for the second election under this act, when the voters shall be confined in their choice to the two places having the highest number of votes at the second election, the place receiving the greatest number of votes of these two shall be the county seat of justice for said county.

Publication to be made of result of election.

Proviso.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall not go into effect unless the provisions of an act passed at the present session of the General Assembly entitled an act to carry into effect in part the valuation and division of the joint property of the city and county of Baltimore, and for adjusting their mutual concerns, be first mutually accepted by the mayor and city council of Baltimore, and the county commissioners of Baltimore county, when this is done it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to cause this act to be published in each newspaper printed in Baltimore county until the day of election, as prescribed by the first section of this act.

Into effect.