

The 16th and 17th being called the foremen find it but was read to which the said 1st pleaded not guilty and for tryall was referred to Court to a Jury — and Thereupon Command was given to the Sheriff to bring into Court twelve good and lawfull men of his County with that the matter in hand might be the better known a list or panel whereof are returned being legally summoned and sworn upon the holy Evangelist. whose names are as appears upon the left hand. who having heard the foremen find it jurors names viz: as also the Oath of three Evidenced Bonds the examination of three more Henry: Hall.
Robert: Talbot.
Edward: Evans.
John: Othens.
William: Corber.
Roger: Durbin.
James: Ingram.
Joseph: Dainton.
John: Brown.
Thomas: Cull.
Thomas: Smith.
Robert: Loke.

with these depositions following. viz: — — —
October 4th 1691. Then came before me William: Layton & Cornelius Anderson & did depose that William: Dury & Thomas: Corber had some words of difference where difference: Corber desired to agree & end it and did say y^e if Dury would comply he would at his own trouble gett Mr David Brown and Mr James: Dashiell to come to his Brother John: Holland for to end y^e difference John: Anderson. — — — — — Cornelius & Anderson
his mark
William & Layton.

On this day having and heard the whole proceedings the sd Jury as in the Margent or left hand after the Charge given are sent forth to deliberate the matter — and When said Jury being returned in Court being sat & man called over by their names are all unanimously agreed of their verdict, the 1st & 2d of full rate. The verdict is read as follows to W^{ts} of the Jury do find the. Porter not guilty of that Count m^t. Hon. Hall Lrd.
The Court Orders the verdict to be entered. Ordered likewise that Porter pay the costs likewise the said Porter give security for his good behaviour during this and for all of Suit. whereupon came the sd Porter this 2. Term viz 88m. Depts of the Sheriffman. and y^e sd the Court of 10th for the 8th month in y^e sum of 5th 8th p^{ts} to be paid to the Sheriffman.