Somerset County the 14. June 1692.

The wor. Court sitting this day. Alexander Humber Petitioner & I Sheweth. That whereas he lived on year's wife in Solby. three years wife Elizabeth Holland & wife Thomas. Oxford. and for this three years past by a hurt that I got in in Solby. I serve, two kind of to have raising out of the Court upon me, and bruising my stomach, I have ever since laboured under great pain & illness, which hath of late so increased upon me that I am now brought so low and wasted, that I am in no wise able to help my self but need some pious, without some charitable assistance. I your wor. Petitioner, do therefore humbly implore to call on yr. of Compassion upon me, as the good Samaritans did, on the poor wounded impotent man & your Charity towards me a little in this my helpless condition. which is well enough known to be no more than that I am a real Object of pity & Charity, & in the eye of reason, can but subsist a little more wife life, so it will not be much I shall need the Lord Upon your Wards to extend your mercy to me. I shall pray almighty God to requite every one of your wor. pious ^{best merits} Alexander Humber

The above Petition being read & considered, the Court doth allow to those persons that shall have the care & keeping the said Alexander Humber till November Court and findney him a new shirt; the sum of five hundred pounds of to have. but if the said Alexander doth before that time, then the persons aforesaid to be allowed pro rate.
