

Baptist Church of St. James, and before the Law. Before Justice of the Peace, John Bishop, my
Be called at the Court-day according to Law, and I will appear and give an account of my actions.

At Court-day, I said Bishop Confess judgment. And Court ordered the said Bishop paid according to Law.

Having attended as witness for Sam. Matis, agt. John. Bishop nine days in your wch. Court for attendance, and your actions as in duty bound shall be pray due up the 9th of May 1692. Thomas Selby.

Sworn before me in Court 9th May.

Baptist Church of Daniel. Llyod. Justice of Somerset County. your Actions be said that he hath paid his Taxes in Virginia, and is charged with it in this County again and your Actions doth desire to be taken of his life, and y<sup>r</sup> petition shall pray.
and your Actions doth desire to be taken of his life, and y<sup>r</sup> petition shall pray.

Action granted. — and —

W. Francis. J. Jenkins Confess judgment to a Bill of George Dorman for 1240 of tobacco if apd<sup>d</sup> in his hand. Bid: Bills in his. A. J. W. fo. 363. and — and —

Maryland Somerset County for the Deposition of George Cre. (aged twenty-eight years or thereabouts) Male of y<sup>r</sup> Samuel: and Henry Cap. John. Head & Comod<sup>d</sup> son<sup>d</sup> that whereas the Deponant being at the house of Francis Dorman in Coromandel along with John. Dorman Master (logaster with one in 88<sup>m</sup>) of the 25th of April last past, heard several conferences of Robert Dorman & friends about tobacco, the said Dorman proposing to purchase a considerable quantity of tobacco from the said Jenkins; upon which the said Dorman & friends walked out near the water side, and after some short time came back logaster into the house where was present the said Jenkins his wife, John Williams wife the Deponant where the said Jenkins did to the said Dorman (before the Deponant the aforesaid persons being then present) well Cap. J. D. 1692 have done now before his Deponance: is it a firm Bargain for my fifty hogsheads of tobacco you to allow me twelve full masts per cent in your goods now at the Landings, by the true value of them in England (as shall appear by the Proportion next) without any additional charge, and to send down the goods by the first return of the ship that is at the Landings by 1st of May; the said Dorman replied, Yes it was their Bargain and thereupon laid hands together upon confirmation of the same, Dorman directing the said Jenkins to pack up to meet him at New hill