

And you are to be satisfied that the said...
...of the said...
...of the said...
...of the said...

The condition of the above recognizance is such that if the above bound Richard
... of the good behavior and abstinence to all their Malice Lige
... of the said... during the Court pleasure as also pay Court charges
... the recognizance to be void and of none effect, otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue.

Richard and Richard. Will you wife and jointly demit and of recognizance the said Will in Open Court did confess himself to be indebted to his Malice in the sum of five pounds Sterling money of England and also paid
... in the sum of five pounds lib. money due to be satisfied on the goods and chattels and demitment for his Malice unto the

The condition of the above recognizance is such that if the above bound Richard
... of the good behavior and abstinence to all their Malice Lige people of the
... during the Court pleasure as also pay the fine of five pounds then the above
... the recognizance to be void of none effect otherwise to be and remain in full power and virtue.

Edward Fowler humbly supplicates that Court that he may be continued ferryman at Wintonemore River for the ensuing year: which by their worship is granted

The Justice of their Malice: Edward for the County of Somerset in Court Henry
... humbly sheweth...
... will me to keep the ferry upon Wintonemore River for the year following...
... at great charge in making of a cause way...
... hundred