Account Given of the Estate of Thomas Beauchamp to be just & true in Court

To the Honorable Justice of the Peace for the County of Somerset in the sitting The humble petition of Edward Goud humbly sheweth that whereas your Honorable Justice has paid four hundred pounds of lobace for Mary Maywell the Cooney taken up, & y^e petitioners humbly crave Order for how long the said Marywell must serve for the said four hundred pounds of lobace, and your Honorable Justice as in duty bound shall pray for October 7 first day 1692.

Being in the house of Mr Edward Goud who was very lame & sick. He called before me Marywell, and asked her if she would deny that she had not run away thirteen days from him whence she did not deny that she had not run away thirteen days from him Howbeit she made to the aforesaid Goud for two hundred pounds of lobace, and that he was swore to upon the holy Evangelist as witness my hand this day & year above written
