

There is no year of 1689. The said promise is assumed upon an a pay unto the said bonds, the sum of £1000. and by the said bonds owners of the said bonds, the sum of £1000. and by the said bonds owners, the said sum of £1000. pounds of the said bonds, the said Thomas Quillain did promise & assumed to pay to the said Thomas bonds, as doth appear by a certain writing under the hand of the said Thomas Quillain, & also in Court produced. and the said Quillain to the said bonds in manner aforesaid being made did assume upon him self to pay to the said bonds the aforesaid sum 1000. pounds of the said bonds when he should be so much requested, would well & truly fulfill & pay. He notwithstanding the said Quillain his promise & assumption. little regarding but fraudulently intending the plt to stand in sum of 1000. pounds of the said bonds, although often demanded, but hath hitherto refused and doth still refuse. whereupon the plt saith he is damaged & hath lost to the value of 3000 pounds of the said bonds & thereupon brings his suit.

Deut. y. Quors.

The said defendant saith & Jurmy Fra. one day: that the said by the said writing produced in Court is not bound to the plt for the said sum alleged, by reason that the plt hath discharged the said assumption, by taking bill of the said Morris since the date of the said bill, & thus the said may be enquired of by the Country. Ja. Sangster —

And the said Plaintiff saith he has not discharged the assumption as the said hath alleged. Deut. y. plt.
