to the said John Starwell in Open Court the said judgment for the above sum of £100 for. Order granted for the same at the Court

Richard Starwell Esq. Plaintiff vs
Richard Starwell Esq. Defendant Layfield Esq. in execution of the Case

And was upon the 1st of July 1689. James Langston Esq. being called that the said Richard Starwell is bound and stands indebted unto the plaintiff in the sum of Two pounds seven shillings six pence Sterling money of England of five hundred pence of tobacco duty & may appear by the underwritten which sum is due to the plaintiff fully assured & promised to pay unto the plaintiff when the same required. but the said defendant craftily intending to detain the plaintiff of the said money and tobacco duty not due to the plaintiff though often the same required, wherefore the plaintiff says he is damaged and hath lost to the value of four pounds four shillings & 12 pence
