

And a witness of the same matter past is the Seal at the Court House for the County of Somerset and is to be in force in all matters concerning the same County in force the 22. day of November 1692.

Witness in Court now?

John Davis Brown: Clerk of the Peace: Justice of the Peace: Ep. of the Peace: in James Dastard: in Roger Woodford: in Edmund: Howard: in George Layfield & Ep. of the Peace: — and —

The above Commissioners and the freeholders have this day and year above agreed that the said County of Somerset into four parishes — That is to say — Menbury & Many hundred into one parish called by the name of Somerset.
Dorchester and Lymington into one parish called Dorchester.
Wincanton and Hamerton into one parish called Wincanton.
Bogalton Herden & Many hundred into one parish called Dorchester.

The time appointed for the freeholders to meet to Chuse their men at the place hereafter named is the 24. day of December next. —

The freeholders of Menbury & Many hundred to meet at Somerset Town.
The freeholders of Dorchester and Lymington to meet at Dorchester Church.
The freeholders of Wincanton & Hamerton to meet at in the Church.
The freeholders of Bogalton Herden & Mattapony to meet at in the Church.

Ordered the Clerk draw Copies to each Constable as also four Copies of the Law concerning the act of Religion. and that the Constables of each hundred do summon the freeholders to meet at the time & place aforesaid. — and —

Thomas de Burgh. Secy. of the Peace: for the County of Somerset: to deliver the Copies of the act of Religion to the freeholders at the time & place aforesaid. —

Ordered the Clerk draw Copies to each Constable as also four Copies of the Law