[illegible] 16 [illegible] August 9th 1692.

[illegible] Hen: Rawlins [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] Jurat [illegible]

[illegible] Deponent Jno Gorbus in Open Court made oath to the truth of this Deposition

[illegible] Jno: [illegible] Cor Cant Somerset.

The Deposition of [illegible] Jones Servt aged fourty two years or [illegible] about Sayth that in the [illegible] of July last Mr Jeremy Romney le Cotomer Ferry, the Ferryman after mr Jnotmente Mr Fromant [illegible] this Jones, Jtold him he, whereas the Ferryman were red, for he had just now brought him over, Jas he Jnit where he was a going, who replyed he thought he was going le Mr Norman and yeby y Deponent he wish, that he the said Jourdins had a probe mr tall with him, Jtreads the said Dorman, Jtraus the sd Dorman would not bett him have his goods that he had bought of the said Dorman, for twelve & Sixpence p. C: your Deponent has made afterwards le Jnore hill, and in mr Dormans Jtead money of the Defendt Jas he mr Dorman knew he ranne to have his mutg goods back, for Jonard at the Ferry that mr Jourdins had bought all what mored the Country in one parish le Cant up, the said Dorman to me & mr Richardson his wife & Jtid Jtid divers other, replyed that he would not nor would not keep his goods for other, for mr Jourdins Deputed the Defendt of his goods for nothing, and that y sd Jourdins & his Fid beat of 12: 6: y Sub Sub that he had preferred a writing le Jnit what was never mentioned before, on which they Jtept of for he could not Jtand Jnit. Jourdin a Jtor having occasion le come to the said mr Jourdins house, the house. Jpecially the hall was empty of any people & Entering at the door mr Jourdins opened the Chamber door, & Jtid me welcome. Jtold Jtid afraid he had not Jton at home the house was so quiet, who replyed he was busie writing over y Day, and among other discourse acquainted me y it was against mr Dorman. Jasked Jnit what was the matter & troubles he replyed he had made a bargain with Jnit which the said Dorman would not Jtand le though he had Evidence le prove it so he read a Deposition of one Jone the Maid, and on further discourse Jtold mr Jourdins Jthey he would not have done out for he saw would Costume le be Medium partium & Jtanded Jnit that he had not Cleared it if it were but a paper, who answered that he had paid Jnit earnest by Jtillman Bowen Jtewards he Jtanded me Jtone he had, or he the said transpanned Jnit le own y Bargain & Jtutting up private Evidence in his Chamber that he had taken two Dorman and