of a material Evidence. Therefore the said judgment may be entered according to Law. It is made & proved.

The said ... was dismissed as not showing cause for, but not dismissed as Evidence, & action still remaining upon the Dockett and Coffman.

Their Majesties
Contra.
Sarah Taylor

Somerset County ss. Sarah Taylor was summoned to answer which shall be objected against her in David Mallob's behalf. And whereas David Mallob Comd & says. That whereas Wm. Coffman of said County Blantock, was appointed in 1687 Court last past by the grand Jury for the County for one of the del. and hogswalors, and the said Sarah being legally summoned to appear as Evidence for David Mallob and the said Coffman. She has said she did not appear at the County Court according to the tenor of the said summons, but contemptuously refused the said summons to obey, whereby the said Coffman, did bring the royal David Mallob dissatisfied of a material Evidence. Therefore the said judgment may be entered against according to Law. It is made & proved.

The said ... was dismissed as not showing cause for. But not dismissed as Evidence, the action still remaining upon the Dockett and Coffman.

Somerset ss. Whereas a Commission hath been issued forth to us to appraise of goods belonging to the Estate of Wm. Harris. Deceased. And now a Negro Man named Hercules was brought to our view belonging to said Estate, where we do judge & appraise to be worth in ready money Sterling, Twenty One pounds, which is according to the best of our knowledge for which we have herewith set our hands & affix our seals. This 23rd 1692.
