

Elizabeth. The Court to James. How for. The Judgment of the Court. The said is going in the 15th Jan^y last past. The Court is not to differ of according to the Custom of the Country. This Court judges it is not to differ from the Court of the County of Somerset.

For which Reason and Order was read, as also a former Order conveyed to the last Court (only the last word viz) age. was left out in the last Order, which two so Orders & Originals Record appearing. This Court did judge that the last word on Record to be the word age. And therefore did Order the said Elizabeth to have according to the Act of Parliament viz from the judgment of the former Record of mine year.

To the w^{or} of the Court of Somerset County Court, the humble Petition of Thomas Doughty Esquire of Edmund Doughty Esquire. humbly sheweth. That if Petitioner having nothing to pay what debts were owing by the Estate of the said Doughty, if Petitioner therefore craves, if w^{or} to declare what shall be allowed for to have the Estate being appraised in money. And if w^{or} Petitioner, as in duty bound shall ever pray for.

Which Petition being read. This Court valued it to be at six shillings & pence.

March the 15th 1691.
By Order of the Court we Richard Doughty Esq. Clerk, have heard what is witnessed could say and according to the Gift of our judgment. have read & finally concluded the difference in the two articles between James Ingleth & George Barke. to the which we have ordered the said Ingleth to pay the said Barke nine hundred pounds of the value, each man paying his own charges in Law for his work as witness our hands and seals

Richard R Doughty Esq. Clerk
his mark
William Doughty Esq. Clerk

The Court is adjourned till tomorrow at nine a Clock. — ends —

A Court hold for the County of Somerset in the Province of Maryland by the Hon^{ble} Justices Justice there under authorized and appointed the ninth day of August in the 4th year of of Mary Queen of England the said 1692.

John Doughty Esq. John Doughty Esq. James Doughty Esq. Thomas Doughty Esq.
and George Longfield Esq. John Doughty Esq.