Ordered by this Court that Mr. Little: Page should pay into the Exchequer the sum of 85: 4: for the same with costs of the Court & the allowance of 5: 0: 0: to be brought into the County of York.

W. Gilbert: Clerk. 21 July 1691

Your Bill last year drawn upon Mr. Little: Page for so much One pound Sterling in Mr. Thomas: Jones being protested, to present suits have brought Contentment to draw new Bills upon you for the same with costs of the Court as the law is where I should not oblige. Therefore these are earnestly requesting you as you do your own Credit & mine not to fail in making good pay of the aforesaid Bill which I have drawn upon you being with the advance Eighty five pounds & four Shillings of the same date. which will singularly oblige me and save your self of much trouble & trouble, which otherwise must necessarily follow if not thankfully answered not doubting your care concerning the promise. I remaine.
