

for the sum of one hundred pounds sterling I have given and bequeath unto my daughter Anne who is now at home in Quaker fashion for my daughter Mary who is now in the trade of wine repairing and of wine for my daughter Mary who is now at home and of other things containing these hundred pounds to be equally divided between them and further I have given and bequeath unto ~~my daughter~~ Robert Dore on a of land containing two hundred acres (all the land) of land and bequeath unto my daughter Anne Doreward of five hundred pounds sterling and further I have given and bequeath unto my two Cousins Jonathan and Samuel Shewell two cows and calves with their families for due unto my Grand Child Dorsey James and young Ward with her goods and unto my daughter Mary of five hundred pounds sterling and to my brother Shewell all my wearing clothes for William's Ward of which I have herewith sold my hand and paid of day and year above mentioned ~~and~~ do for signing & sealing if in case my wife should die before my two Daughters Margat & Elizabeth comes to age if then for good & James Round to be Care of them & of what belongs unto them

Edward Dingle

Tera Copie of this Saml Davis
 John Deal
 James Round

signed & sealed in presence of us
 Michael Howare
 Signer
 Mary Osmon
 James Round

- | | |
|-----------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| Went - due upon record of board will appear. | Miss Cunningham 25 days |
| James Dodams. 40 days | Mr. Howford is only |
| Maryon: Woman. Servant to Chas. Miller 40 days | Matt Jones 20 |
| Mary Perry. 40 days | Elizabeth Widdows 30 |
| Margaretha Maria Cooper 40 days. | Robert Dore 25 |
| Elizabeth: Green. 40 days. | Sam. Widdows 50 for the 2nd part |
| Elizabeth: Larimore Serv. to Stephen: Days. 20 days | |
| Sarah. Ward. 40 days. | |
| Infannah: W. Worman. 20 days. | |
| Valter Lane. | |

And Cornelius James had day come of 10 and Robt. Davis in 5 for the said James had small appearance along with him to the Court of Justice in November and December 1692