

and I will upon the Land. I asked Robert Howard where I should get the timber to make the fence with Howard said get it from the timber where I shall show you, what needed you more. I said I had need to have for fear I shall trespass upon other mens Land. He said I should get it from the man I should speak to, but not from the man I should speak to from I should get it from any mans Land but upon the Childs Land. Robert Howard answered do not ye fear me that I shall let the fence upon any mans Land but upon the Childs Land, for what I say Howard I will say. For it is to that effect. So Robert Howard showed us a fence, & pointed to a fence or point of Wood & said ye must begin at this end and end at yonder point of Wood that I depend on, saye I further saye not
