

of Maryland that sections 771 and 773 of Article 4, Public Local Laws, entitled 'City of Baltimore,' subtitle 'Police Commissioners,' as amended and re-enacted by chapter 123 of the Acts of 1898, be repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows.

Which was adopted.

Also,

"Section 771. The said Board of Police Commissioners for the city of Baltimore are authorized to appoint and commission bi-annually, five physicians of integrity and capacity, residents of Baltimore city, and who shall have practiced medicine therein for at least three years next preceeding the date of their commission, to act as physicians of the Police Department of said city, under such rules and regulations as the said Board may from time to time prescribe for their conduct, one of said physicians shall be designated by the said Board as the chief physician."

Which was adopted.

Also,

"Section 773. The salary of the said chief physician shall be fifteen hundred dollars per annum, payable monthly, and the salary of each of the other of said physicians shall be one thousand dollars per annum, payable monthly, but the tenure of said physicians shall be determinable within the term for which he or they were appointed by a majority of the said board, and in their exclusive discretion; and the said chief physician and each of the other of said physicians shall be compensated only up to the time of such determination at the rate of his or their salary aforesaid.

Which was adopted.

"Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That, this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage."

Which was adopted.

Which was read the second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.
