

General Assembly of Maryland of 1900, relating to wild fowl and game, birds and animals in Somerset county, as amended by the Acts of 1902, chapter 618, and to re-enact said sections with amendments, and to add a new section thereto to be designated as 'Section 3 A.'"

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

Add new section to be known as 'Section 5,' and be it enacted, that from and after the passage of this Act, that every person who shall hunt game as prescribed in section 2 of this Act, shall procure from the clerk of the Court of Somerset county, a license as follows: "non residents shall, before being allowed to hunt game under the provisions of this Act, pay a license fee of ten dollars ($10), with 50 cents to clerk for issuing same; and residents, except they be land holders hunting on their own premises, shall pay a license fee of one dollar ($1.00), with a fee of 25 cents to clerk for issuing same. Each offender, for a violation of this Act, shall pay a penalty of fifty dollars ($50.00), or be imprisoned for not less than ten days, nor more than thirty days or both, in the discretion of the Court. All money derived from operation of this section shall be paid over by the clerk of the School Commissioners for the benefit of the public schools."

Which was adopted.

Which was read the third time, and passed by yeas and nays as follows:
