

The Secretary of State appeared and delivered the following message from the Executive :

STATE OF MARYLAND,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

ANNAPOLIS, Md. March 24, 1904.

Hon. George Y. Everhart,

Speaker of the House of Delegates.

Sir : I beg to return herewith, without my approval House Bill, Chapter 128, passed by your honorable body, for the following reasons :

This Bill does not accomplish the objects desired by its promoters, who have introduced in the House a subsequent Bill thoroughly covering all desired legislation, and request that it take the place of the Bill returned.

Respectfully,

EDWIN WARFIELD,

Gov. of Maryland.

House bill, chapter 128, entitled "An Act to amend Article 6 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title 'Caroline County,' sub-title 'Almshouse,' by adding two new sections thereto, to come in after section 26 C, and to be numbered 26 D and 26 E, said new sections authorizing the trustees of the poor of Caroline county to borrow a sum of money to erect, furnish and heat suitable buildings on the almshouse farm in said county for the accommodations of the inmates of said almshouse, providing for the payment of said loan."

On motion of Mr. Goslin, it was moved,

That the Governor's veto be sustained.

Which was done by yeas and nays as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.
