

RESOLUTION.

By Mr. Linthicum,

Resolved, That the State of Maryland is singularly fortunate in having a full goatee government at this time, to-wit: Governor, Comptroller, President of the Senate, Speaker pro tem. of the House of Delegates, as also the Sergeant-at-Arms and Reading Clerk.

On motion of the Speaker,

Ordered spread upon Journal.

By Mr. Evans,

Whereas, During the session of the House of Delegates of 1904, the inconvenience of the members of said body has been such that it is impossible for them on account of the cramped quarters of the chamber to discharge their duties as fully as they could otherwise do.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the House of Delegates that the Building Commission of the new State House be requested to adopt some means by which the Chamber of the House of Delegates may be enlarged to suit the purposes of said body.

Which was adopted and ordered spread upon Journal.

---

ORDERS.

By Mr. Bosse,

Resolved, That it is the sense of this House of Delegates, that all the State printing should be done in lower rooms of this State House, and that the same be spread on the Journal.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Harry offered the following

RESOLUTION.

Whereas today is the commonly accepted anniversary of the death of our Lord, and whereas it is the belief of the Christian world that on this day Jesus, the Christ hung upon the Cross in mental and mortal agony and was buried before sunset, therefore be it,