for said primary. The books of registry shall be furnished the return judge of each polling place, for the purpose of determining the right of the party to vote, and no one shall be entitled to vote at said primary election who is not a registered voter in the precinct in which he applied to vote ; provided, however, that any person who may since the last preceding registration, come of age or otherwise acquire the right to vote at the election next succeeding said primary election, may vote upon satisfying the judges by proper evidence that he will be entitled to register under the laws of this State at the next succeeding registration, and for the purposes of this section, the said judges of election may examine upon oath or affirmation such witnesses as may be adduced before them, including the applicant himself ; the person making said oaths and affirmations shall be subject to the same penalties as if the same were made in judicial proceedings. But the said judges of election are not to make any marks or entries whatever upon said registration books, but are to use the same only for the purpose of determining the right of an applicant to vote.

"Sec. 8. The clerks in each precinct shall keep in books, to be furnished them for that purpose, an entry of the name and party affiliation of each person offering to vote ; said books to be returned to the Supervisors of Election, together with the returns of said primary election.

"Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of said Board of Supervisors of Election to appoint the place of voting in each precinct, and to furnish two ballot boxes for each precinct, one to be used by each political party, at least two days' prior to said primary election.

"Sec. 10. Before entering upon the discharge of their duties, one of the clerks in each of the precincts of Montgomery county, shall administer to the judges the following oath :

"In the presence of Almighty God, you solemnly promise and declare that you will well and faithfully perform the office of —————— , in—————Election
