

and expense, as to fully meet the exigencies occasioning such notice; and if any such individual, or corporation, shall refuse, neglect or fail after such reasonable notice, to discharge any duty cast upon him or it by this section, he or it shall, in addition to, but not in substitution for, any other remedy or remedies, that said commission or the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore may have in the premises, be subject to a fine of one hundred ($100) dollars for each and every such offense, and also to an additional fine of fifty ($50) dollars a day for every day that said refusal, neglect or failure shall continue; said fines to be collected as other fines in the city of Baltimore are collected; and should the exigencies of said Commission and its work, in any case, involve a taking, in the constitutional sense, of the franchise, or right, in the exercise of which such obstruction had its origin, the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, acting by and through the agency of said Commission shall be empowered to secure the condemnation of such franchise, or right, in the manner provided for in section 3 of this Act. The preceding provisions of this section shall likewise be applicable to any such obstruction in, over or under the public highways of any county of this State into which said sewerage system shall extend.

The duty and cost of adjusting or removing private drains and sewers in Baltimore city, which shall block or impede the progress of said sewerage system when in progress of construction and establishment shall rest upon and be borne by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore exclusively."
