AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

In section 178 D. Strike out all after the words "defendant" in the 46th line to the end of the word "prescribed" in line 49 and insert the following:

"The Constable for the 6th district shall be allowed and paid the sum of sixty dollars monthly, to be paid by the County Commissioners of the county, and the regular fees now allowed by law shall be collected, paid to and accounted for by the Justices of the Peace of said district or either of them, and paid over to the County Commissioners."

In line 23, after the word "peace" add the words "such reports of both Constables and Justices of Peace shall be made under oath."

In line 38, after the word "district," "and for the Eastport precinct of the second election district, wherein no constable shall be appointed by the County Commissioners other than the police officer, who shall not receive any pay for doing criminal work, other than his monthly salary."

"All Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this bill are hereby repealed."
