

Their recommendations, with such suggestions as occur to me, will be submitted from time to time to the General Assembly.

EDWIN WARFIELD,
Governor of Maryland.

Which was read and ordered spread upon the Journal.

Mr. Johnston submitted the following

RESOLUTION.

Resolved, That whereas upon a resolution of the House of Delegates, passes were issued to the Members of the House of Delegates of Maryland, to pass through the fire lines of Baltimore city, by the Governor of the State, and

Whereas, The said passes were taken up by the troops in Baltimore under orders of Brigadier-General Lawrason Riggs, and admission through the fire-lines was denied to the Members of the House of Delegates,

Therefore, Be it resolved, that the action of Brigadier-General Riggs, in taking up and refusing to recognize the passes of His Excellency, Governor Warfield, Commander-in-Chief of States troops, be condemned as an unwarranted discourtesy to the Members of this House and to His Excellency, the Governor of Maryland.

That Brigadier-General Riggs be directed to come before this body at noon, February 11, 1904, and explain his conduct, and that the Sergeant-at-arms of this House be directed to issue a summons to Brigadier-General Riggs.

And that a copy of these resolutions be sent to said Brigadier-General Lawrason Riggs.

Which was read and adopted.

The Secretary of the Senate appeared and delivered the following messages:

Senate bill, File No. 72, entitled "An Act to authorize the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to