

We have appointed on the part of the House Messrs. Benson, Collins, Hill, Morrison and Godwin.

By order,

B. L. SMITH,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

JOINT CONVENTION.

The hour of 2.30 p. m., having arrived,

The Senate appeared, accompanied by the committee appointed by the House, and took the seats assigned them. The returns for the election of Governor were then opened by the Speaker of the House of Delegates in the presence of both houses, in conformity with the provisions of the Constitution, Article 2, section 3, and were read by the Speaker.

It was found that Hon. Edwin Warfield had received 108,548 vote.

Hon. Stevenson A. Williams received 95,923.

Hon. William Gisriel received 2,913 votes and Hon. Silas M. Crabill received 1,302.

Whereupon,

The Speaker declared that Edwin Warfield having received the highest number of votes cast, was duly elected Governor of Maryland for the term of four year from the time of his qualification as prescribed by the Constitution.

The Speaker then declared the Joint Assembly adjourned.

The Senators returned to the Senate Chamber, and the House resumed business at 2:50 p. m.

On motion of Mr. Wells the House adjourned until Tuesday, January 12, at 7:30 p. m.
