

On motion of Mr. Hill,

The Speaker's address was ordered to be spread upon the Journal.

Col. Joshua H. Cockey, of Baltimore county, then administered the oath of office to the Speaker-elect, who subscribed to the same on the test book of the House of Delegates.

Whereupon,

The Speaker, in accordance with the custom of the House, directed that the members-elect be severally called and qualified by delegations.

The following members then presented themselves to the Speaker to be sworn in, in accordance with the Constitution:

St. Mary's county—George L. Buckler, William T. Wilkinson.

Kent county—Cecil R. Atkinson, Isaac Gibbs.

Anne Arundel county—James O. Atwell, Enoch W. Downs, Frank M. Duvall, John M. Lowman.

Calvert county—Benson B. D. Bond, Oliver D. Simmons.

Charles county—Hungerford Smoot, J. deB Walbach.

Baltimore county—George Y. Everhart, Joshua H. Cockey, Christopher E. Fitzsimmons, John Green, Allen Stevenson, Carville D. Benson.

Talbot county—William Collins, Richard S. Dodson, William J. Jackson.

Somerset county—Lewis M. Melbourne, Edward S. Miles, Lloyd Reggan.

Dorchester county—William D. Hopkins, J. H. Murphy.

Cecil county—Samuel J. Keys, Cecil Kirk, William T. Fryor.

Prince George's county—Richard S. Hill, J. Enos Roy, Jr., Michael J. Tighe, Robert W. Wells.

Queen Anne's county—Charles R. Walls, Charles W. Butler, William R. Wilson.

Worcester county—William Lee Cary, Samuel K. Dennis, William G. Kirbin.