

porate, for a violation of any of the preceding sections hereof, it shall be lawful for the State to prove that such person or persons, house, company, association or body corporate, on trial, has or have paid (if such be the case) a special tax to the government of the United States, under the Internal Revenue laws thereof, upon or for his, her, their or its business, as a brewer or brewers, or retail dealer or dealers in liquors, or wholesale dealer in liquors, or retail dealer or dealers in malt liquors, or wholesale dealer or dealers in malt liquors (as the case may be), in Montgomery county, for a period of time within which such violation has occurred, and to prove that he, she, it or they, has or have registered his, her, their or its business for said period as such dealer or dealers with the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district of which Montgomery county shall form a part, and that he, she, it or they, made application to said collector to be so registered; and it shall be lawful for the state, in such case, to offer in evidence said Internal Revenue laws relating to said special taxes, and the payment of said special tax or taxes upon, and the registering of his, her, their or its said business, may be proved by a certificate of said collector, or any of his deputies, or by the sworn testimony of him, or any of them, or by the sworn testimony of any person who has examined the books of said collector; and a copy of the application of any person or persons, house, company, association or body corporate, for registry, under said revenue laws, made and attested by said collector, or any of his deputies, or sworn to by any person who has examined the books of said collector, shall be prima facie proof of such application, and the payment of said tax and the application for such registry shall be prima facie evidence that the party so paying and applying is engaged in the sale of intoxicating drinks within the limits of Montgomery county.

“Sec. 134 C. Whenever any person shall charge on oath or affirmation before any Justice of the Peace, or any Grand Jury shall present, that any person or persons, house, company, association or body corporate, has or have violated the provisions of section one hundred and thirty-four of this Act, and shall request