

thereto nine additional sections under the sub-title, 'Corrupt Practices,' to follow section 154 as now re-enacted."

Considered, and on motion,

Recommitted to the Committee on Elections.

Also unfavorably,

House bill, File No. 134, entitled "An Act to repeal and re-enact with amendment, section 20 of Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws, title 'Elections,' sub-title 'Registration.'"

Which unfavorable report was adopted.

Mr. Goslin, from Committee on Ways and Means, reported favorably the following order.

Whereas, There is now and has been for the past four years a great demand by the people of Maryland, and other States as well as from foreign countries, for the annual report of the Bureau of Statistics and Information, and

Whereas, The Governor, John Walter Smith, in his last message recommended the publication of a greater number of these reports, and whose recommendations were endorsed by Governor Edwin Warfield, in his inaugural address; and

Whereas, By the present construction of the law, but a limited number of copies of these reports become the property of the department for distribution; therefore,

Be it Ordered by the House of Delegates, That William J. C. Dulany Company, State Printers, be and are hereby authorized to print and bind one thousand extra copies of the twelfth annual report of the Bureau of Statistics and Information, three hundred copies to be folded and stitched and bound with paper covers, the entire cost of the same to be the sum of eight hundred and eighty dollars ($880) said sum to be taken out of the appropriation for State Printing for the Session of 1904.

Which was adopted by yeas and nays as follows: .