

The President presented to the Senate the Annual Report of the Comptroller of the Treasury, and Commissioner of Insurance, with the following communication :

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE,

Annapolis, January 4th, 1878.

Hon. Edward Lloyd, President of the Senate.

Dear Sir:—I herewith transmit to your Honorable Body my Annual Report of the operations of the Treasury Department for the fiscal year, ended 30th September, 1877, with the accompanying document.

I have the honor to be very respectfully,

Your ob't servant,

DEVIN WOOLFORD,

Comptroller.

[See Documents B. and C.]

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance, (hereafter to be appointed.)

The President presented to the Senate the following communication from the State Librarian :

STATE LIBRARY,

Annapolis, January 4th, 1878.

A. Gassaway, Esq., Secretary of the Senate.

Sir:—In response to the order of the Senate passed on yesterday, I have to state that there are no copies of the Constitution left in the Library, and not sufficient copies of the Code and Supplements to fully furnish the members of the Senate and House.

This deficiency arises from the fact that copies of both Constitution and Code furnished to former Legislatures were not returned to the Library, after the close of the session.

I would respectfully suggest that the course adopted at the last session be now followed, to wit : that I shall furnish 6 copies of the Code and Supplements for the use of the Senate.

Very respectfully, your ob't servant,

JOHN H. MAGRUDER,

State Librarian.

Which was read.
