To the Honorable,

the General Assembly of Maryland :

The memorial of Brantz Mayer, a citizen of this State, most respectfully represents, that your memorialist having long taken great interest in the collection and preservation of materials for history, begs leave to invoke your attention to the necessity of establishing at our capital an archive in which our State papers, during both Proprietary and State Government, may be gathered; systematically arranged and faithfully preserved for reference or study.

Your memorialist begs leave, also, to present herewith for your notice a printed letter, which he sent in 1866 to Governor Bradford, on returning to Annapolis certain State papers which he had disinterred from the dust, and classified by permission of that executive officer. Since then, those papers
