

land, of the January Session, 1876, and to re-enact the same with amendments, and to repeal Section 55, of the aforesaid Article 17, of the Code of Public Local Laws, and to re-enact a substitute therefor, and to add an additional section to said Article 17, of the Code of Public Local Laws,

With the following proposed amendments

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

In title, line 1, in place of the word "section, insert "sections," and after the words "thirty-two," insert "and seventy-one."

In Section 1, line 2, in place of the word "section," insert "sections, and in same line after the word "two," insert "seventy one."

In Section 32, line 1, after the word "enacted," strike out all to the word "shall," in line 6, and insert the following:

"That all persons entitled to vote for Delegates to the General Assembly of Maryland, and who have resided within the corporate."

Sec. 71. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Centreville may adopt the county assessment and valuation of all real and personal property in said town, and may annually, between the first day of April and the first day of May, levy on the property so assessed, such sums of money not to exceed thirty cents for every hundred dollars in any one year, as they may deem necessary for the improvements and expenses of said town.

Section 55, line 4, after the word "sale," insert "in said town."

Line 5, after the word "therein," strike out all down to the word "and," in line 8.

Which were adopted.

Said bill, as amended, was then read the second time.

The hour of one o'clock having arrived, the President announced the order of the day to be

The House bill entitled an Act to repeal Section 13, of Chapter 483, of the Acts of 1874, entitled an Act to repeal Article 81, of the Code of Public General Laws of the State of Maryland, entitled "Revenue and Taxes," and to re-enact the same with amendments, and to re-enact the said section with amendments.